

WillowCahill Wee-La Kipp

Phone: (406) 540-2634

W.cahillkipp@gmail.com

107 Colony Crt. Missoula MT,
59803

Education

BS University of Montana, Native American Studies,
Minor in Environmental Studies May,2018

Honors and Awards

University of Montana Student Diversity and leadership award 2018

Haskell Environmental Research Studies Institute (HERS) internship
Research on Climate Change in Indigenous Communities 2018

Native Plants and Ethnobotany Internship
Study and rehabilitation of Indigenous Plant Species 2017,2018

Presentations and Invited Lectures

Invited Presentation, "Promotion of Community Wellness Through Language Activism & Revitalization: A Student Perspective" 2017

Invited Presentation, "Ethnobotany and Indigenous Plants In Montana" Saokio
Heritage on Blackfeet Traditional Foods and the Importance of Food Sovereignty for Our, Health, Culture, and Environment. 2017

Haskell Environmental Research Studies Institute (HERS),
Kansas,Colorado 2018

Mentor: Cheyenne SunEagle

- Bison, Fire, Nitsitapii: Utilizing Bison and Controlled Burns to Maintain Sort-Mixed Grass Prairie Biodiversity within the Blackfeet Nation

Professional Training

Workshop

(HERS) Haskell Environmental Research Studies Institute, Kansas University
Zotero training 2018

Workshop

HERS, Haskell Environmental Research Studies Institute
Lagotte Research Methods 2018

Professional Service

Workshop Lead, “RED Ribbon Dress Workshop” Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women’s Special Fundraiser, Kyiyo Powwow, March 2017

Tour Guide, “Walking tours of Wildlife habitat and natural Areas” Environmental Studies Department, University of Montana, October 2017

Co-organizer Kyiyo Pow-wow April 2017, 2018

Co-Founder, Sacred Roots Language Society for University of Montana 2016, 2017

Languages

English: Primary language

Blackfeet: Active Listener, Novice Speaker, Advanced Reading and Writing

References

Marilyn Marler
University of Montana
Professional affiliation
(406) 544-7189
Email: Marilyn.Marner@umt.edu